FEATURES

Greets, answers, filters, hands over

One AI sales assistant working on Instagram DM and WhatsApp. No integrations to set up inside your own systems.

01

Greets Every Message

First reply within seconds on Instagram DM and WhatsApp, 24/7. Requests that arrive at night don't wait in line.

02

Answers Their Questions

Price, service, opening hours, product and shipping questions answered from your own business information.

03

Filters the Curious Out

Who is just browsing, who will buy: it learns the need, asks the right questions and separates real demand from curiosity.

04

Hands the Lead to You

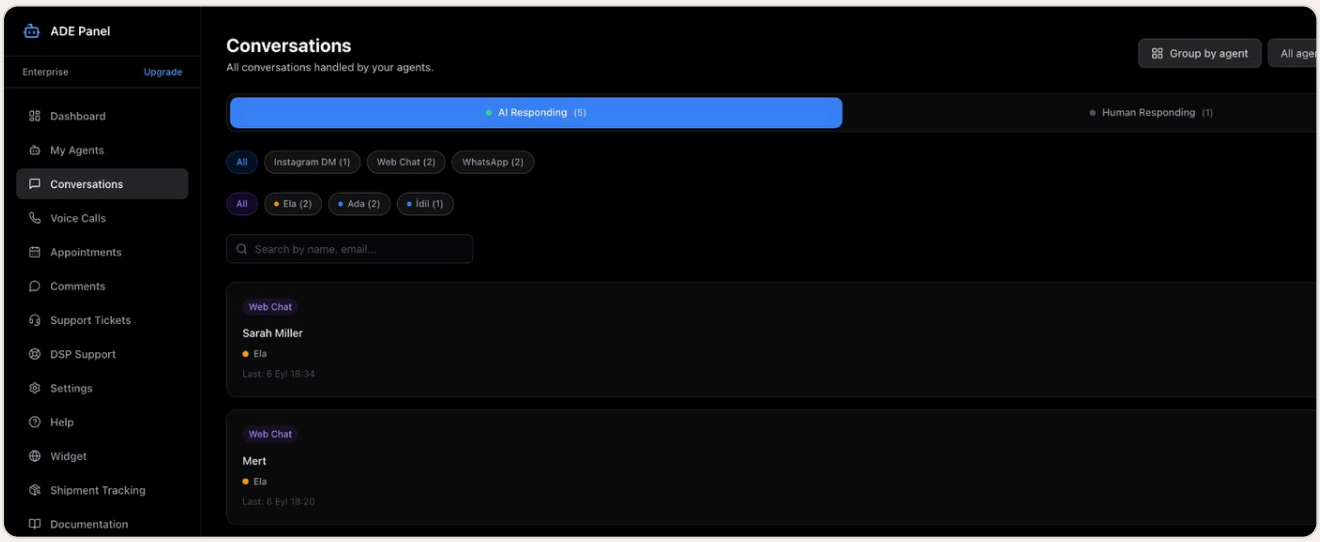
Saves the interested customer as a lead and drops the conversation in your panel. You close the sale.

CHANNELS

Instagram DM

Instagram comments

WhatsApp Business



The Conversations screen: Instagram DM, WhatsApp and web chat in one list, with AI and human replies on separate tabs.

Does it take orders and payments? No. The assistant greets, qualifies and hands the request to you; orders, payments and delivery are completed in your own channel. No payment is taken inside the chat.

What if the AI gives a wrong answer? Answers are limited to your own knowledge base; when it does not know, it does not guess and passes the conversation to you. You can take over the conversation from the panel at any time.

FAQ

Frequently Asked Questions

Who does the setup and how long does it take?

We do the setup: we connect your Instagram and WhatsApp accounts and teach the assistant your business information. The assistant starts writing the moment the Meta approval steps are completed.

Which channels does it work on?

Instagram DM, Instagram comments and WhatsApp Business. For appointments the assistant shares the link to your OWN booking page — DSP does not keep an appointment calendar. External integrations such as a shipping or stock API are not included by default.

Is everything included in the price? Any hidden costs?

Setup, assistant training and monthly maintenance are included. WhatsApp Business API message fees and, if you request it, custom integration development are charged separately.
